These terms of service, together with any documents and additional terms they incorporate by reference (collectively, these “Terms”), are entered into between Gravity Protocol team (“Gravity”, “Team”, “we”, “us”, and “our”) and you or User or other legal entity that you represent (“you” or “your”).

These Terms govern your use of our site located at gravity.tech and all associated sites (the “Portal”) and our Services (defined below) and describe your rights and obligations and our disclaimers and limitations of legal liability.

By accessing or using any part of the Portal or the Services, you agree to become bound by the terms and conditions of these Terms. If you do not agree to these Terms, you must not access or use our Portal or the Services. Please carefully review your warranties and our disclosures and disclaimers set forth before using the Portal and any software developed by Gravity.

Please refer to our privacy policy available at gravity.tech/privacy-policy for information about how we collect, use, share and otherwise process information about you. 1. SERVICES

In order to use certain features of the Portal, you may be required to register for an account (“Account”) and provide certain information about yourself as prompted by the account registration form. You must provide complete and accurate information to Gravity. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your Account login information and are fully responsible for all activities that occur under your Account. Gravity may suspend or terminate your Account for any reason at our sole discretion, including for any use of the Portal or Services in violation of these Terms or the Gravity Community Code of Conduct.

The Portal enables users to access open source software and related services, including (without limitation) oracle and node operator software and resources, data and computation services, information about the Gravity network and resources for the Gravity community (the “Services”).

The Portal also enables users to publish information on their publicly available user profile page (“Profile”). Profile data can be used by us and any third parties as your digital identity profile and the data source for blockchain smart-contracts. Gravity may take reasonable steps to verify the user identity but makes no claim or representation regarding its accuracy.

Some Services offered by us or other participants in the Gravity network involve the use of Gravity network or another decentralized or permissioned infrastructure (the “Distributed Ledger Technology”), which may require that you pay a fee for the computational resources required to perform a transaction on the particular Distributed Ledger Technology (such payments and fees, “Charges”).

Gravity has no control over any Distributed Ledger Technology transactions and payments of Charges. Accordingly, you must ensure that you have a sufficient balance of the applicable Distributed Ledger Technology network tokens stored at your Distributed Ledger Technology-compatible wallet address (“Distributed Ledger Technology Address”) to complete any transaction on the Gravity network or the Distributed Ledger Technology before initiating such transaction.

Portal and user Profiles may host or provide links to websites, Distributed Ledger Technology services and other content of third parties (“Third Party Content”). Gravity makes no claim or representation regarding, and accepts no responsibility for, Third Party Content or for the quality, accuracy, nature, ownership or reliability thereof. You use these links and the Third Party Content at your own risk. When you leave the Portal, you should be aware that our terms and policies no longer govern. You will defend, indemnify, and hold harmless Gravity, Waves ecosystem, our affiliates, and our and our affiliates’ respective shareholders, members, directors, officers, employees, attorneys, agents, representatives, suppliers, licensors and contractors (collectively, Protected Parties) from any claim, demand, lawsuit, action, proceeding, investigation, liability, damage, loss, cost or expense, including without limitation reasonable attorneys’ fees, arising out of or relating to your use of, or conduct in connection with, the Portal, Services, the Gravity network, Distributed Ledger Technology assets associated with your Distributed Ledger Technology Address, any other digital assets, any Feedback or User Content; your violation of these Terms; your violation of applicable laws or regulations; or your infringement or misappropriation of the rights of any other person or entity. If you are obligated to indemnify any Protected Party, Gravity (or, at its discretion, the applicable Protected Party) will have the right, in its sole discretion, to control any action or proceeding and to determine whether Gravity wishes to settle, and if so, on what terms.

8. DISCLAIMERS

Gravity core team is a developer of open-source software. Gravity does not operate Gravity network and therefore has no oversight, involvement, or control with respect to your transactions, including supported tokens purchases and sales.

Gravity does not own or control the underlying software protocols that are used in connection with the supported blockchain networks. In general, the underlying protocols are open-source and anyone can use, copy, modify, and distribute them. Gravity is not responsible for the operation of the underlying protocols, and Gravity makes no guarantee of their functionality, security, or availability. To the maximum extent permitted under Applicable Law, the Portal and the Services (and any of their content or functionality) provided by or on behalf of us are provided on an “AS IS” and “AS AVAILABLE” basis, and we expressly disclaim, and you hereby waive, any representations, warranties and conditions of merchantability, quality, fitness for a particular purpose, security, availability, reliability, accuracy, and non-infringement of third party rights. We do not represent or warrant that the Portal or the Services will be uninterrupted, available at any particular time or error-free. Further, we do not warrant that errors in the Portal or the Service are correctable or will be corrected.

You acknowledge that your data on the Portal or through the Services may become irretrievably lost or corrupted or temporarily unavailable due to a variety of causes, and agree that, to the maximum extent permitted under Applicable Law, we will not be liable for any loss or damage.

You understand that Gravity is not registered or licensed by any financial regulatory authority. No financial regulatory authority has reviewed or approved the use of the Gravity open-source software. Gravity is not acting as an investment adviser or commodity trading adviser to any person.

9. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

In no event will Gravity, together with any Protected Party, be liable for any incidental, indirect, special, punitive, exemplary, consequential or similar damages or liabilities whatsoever (including, without limitation, damages for loss of data, information, revenue, goodwill, profits or other business or financial benefit) arising out of or in connection with the Portal, the Services and the Gravity network (and any of their content and functionality), any execution or settlement of a transaction, any performance or non-performance of the Services, your Distributed Ledger Technology assets, other digital assets or any other product, service or other item provided by or on behalf of a Protected Party, whether under contract, tort (including negligence), civil liability, statute, strict liability, breach of warranties, or under any other theory of liability, and whether or not any Protected Party has been advised of, knew of or should have known of the possibility of such damages and notwithstanding any failure of the essential purpose of these Terms or any limited remedy nor is Gravity in any way responsible for the execution or settlement of transactions between users of Gravity open-source software or the Gravity network.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, in consideration for being allowed to use the Portal, the Services and/or the Gravity network, you hereby release and forever discharge Gravity, Gravity team and all Protected Parties from, and hereby waive and relinquish, each and every past, present and future dispute, claim, controversy, demand, right, obligation, liability, action and cause of action of every kind and nature (including personal injuries, death, and property damage), that has arisen or arises directly or indirectly out of, or that relates directly or indirectly to, the Portal, the Services and/or the Gravity network (including any interactions with, or act or omission of, other Portal or Gravity network users or any third-party services).

10. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

These Terms shall exclusively be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive laws of the England and Wales.

Any dispute or claim that you have against Gravity or relating in any way to the Services, you agree to first contact Gravity and attempt to resolve the claim informally by sending a written notice of your claim (“Notice”) to Gravity by email at legal@gravity.tech. The Notice must include your name, residence address, email address, and telephone number, describe the nature and basis of the claim and set forth the specific relief sought. Our notice to you will be similar in form to that described above. In the event that the parties are unable to resolve a dispute, then the parties hereby irrevocably submit such dispute to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

You and Gravity waive the rights to a jury trial and to have any dispute arising out of or related to these Terms or our Services resolved in court.

You and Gravity agree that any dispute arising out of or related to these Terms or our Services is personal to you and Gravity and that any dispute will be resolved solely through individual action, and will not be brought as a class arbitration, class action or any other type of representative proceeding.

11. RISK DISCLOSURE

You acknowledge the following serious risks to any use of the Portal or the Services or and expressly agree to not hold any Protected Parties liable should any of the following risks occur:

- Regulatory Actions in One or More Jurisdictions: The Portal or the Services could be impacted by one or more regulatory inquiries or regulatory actions, which could impede or limit the ability of Project to continue to develop the Portal or Services, or which could impede or limit your ability to use the Portal or Services.
- Alternative, Unofficial Gravity Networks: It is possible that alternative Gravity-based networks could be established, which utilize the same open source code and open source protocol underlying the Portal and/or Services. The Gravity network may compete with these alternative Gravity-based networks, which could potentially negatively impact the Portal and/or Services.
- Insufficient Interest in the Gravity Network or Distributed Applications: It is possible that the Gravity be network will not be used by a large number of external businesses, individuals, and other organizations and that there will be limited public interest in the creation and development of distributed applications. Such a lack of interest could impact the development of the Gravity network. The Team cannot predict the success of its own development efforts or the efforts of other third parties.
- The Portal and Services, as Developed, Will Not Meet the Expectations of User: You recognize that the Portal, Services and the Gravity network are under development and may undergo significant changes over time. You acknowledge that any expectations regarding the form and functionality of the Gravity network held by you may not be met upon release of the Portal, Services or the Gravity network, for any number of reasons including a change in the design and implementation plans, specifications and execution of the implementation of the Portal, Services or the Gravity network.

- Security Weaknesses in the Infrastructure Software: The Portal, Services, Gravity network, Distributed Ledger Technology rest on open-source software, and there is a risk that the Protected Parties, or other third parties not directly affiliated with Team, may introduce weaknesses or bugs into the core infrastructural elements of the Portal, Services, Gravity network or Distributed Ledger Technology causing the system to lose supported tokens stored in one or more of your accounts or other accounts. Furthermore, despite our good faith efforts to develop and maintain the Portal, Services and the Gravity network, the Portal, Services and the Gravity network may experience malfunctions or otherwise fail to be adequately developed or maintained, which may negatively impact the Portal, Services and the Gravity network.
- Weaknesses or Exploitable Breakthroughs in the Field of Cryptography: Cryptography is an art, not a science. And the state of the art can advance over time. Advances in code cracking, or technical advances such as the development of quantum computers, could present risks to cryptocurrencies and the Portal, Services and the Gravity network which could result in the theft or loss of supported tokens. To the extent within its control and otherwise possible, Team intends to update the protocol underlying the Portal, Services and the Gravity network to account for any advances in cryptography and to incorporate additional security measures, but it cannot predict the future of cryptography or guarantee that any security updates will be made in a timely or successful manner.
- Price volatility: Gravity network can use Distributed Ledger Technology tokens which price may decrease in value or even lose all of its value due to various factors including wrongful conduct, market manipulation, changes to token properties or its perceived value, attacks, and other factors outside our control.

- Blockchain Network Attacks: Any blockchain used for the Portal, Services and/or the Gravity network may be susceptible to mining attacks, including but not limited to: double-spend attacks, sybil attack, majority mining power attacks, “selfish-mining” attacks, and work race condition attacks. Any successful attacks present a risk to the Portal, Services, the Gravity Network, expected proper execution and sequencing of transactions, and expected proper execution and sequencing of contract computations.
- Rapid Adoption and Insufficiency of Computational Application Processing Power of the Portal, Services and the Gravity Network: If the Portal, Services and/or the Gravity network are rapidly adopted, the demand for transaction processing and distributed application computations could rise dramatically and at a pace that exceeds the rate with which Team services can be provided. Under such a scenario, the entire Portal, Services and Gravity network could become destabilized, due to the increased cost of running distributed applications. In turn, this could dampen interest in the Portal, Services and the Gravity network. This could result in lost revenues and disruption or halting of business operations.
- Risks Associated with New and Evolving Laws: The Gravity network, and by extension the Portal and Services, may be subject to a variety of international laws and regulations, including those with respect to financial or securities regulations, consumer privacy, data protection, consumer protection, content regulation, network neutrality, cyber security, data protection, intellectual property (including copyright, patent, trademark and trade secret laws), defamation, and others. Such laws and regulations, and the interpretation or application of these laws and regulations, could change. In addition, new laws or regulations affecting the Team could be enacted. As the Portal, Services and Gravity network evolve, we may be subject to new laws, and the application of existing laws to us might change. These laws and regulations are frequently costly to comply with and we could be subject to significant liabilities which could adversely impact the Team, the Portal, Services and the Gravity network.

- Unanticipated Risks: Cryptographic tokens such as supported platforms tokens are a new and untested technology. In addition to the risks included in these Terms, there are other risks associated with the Portal, Services, the Gravity network and supported tokens, including those that the Team cannot anticipate. Such risks may further materialize as unanticipated variations or combinations of the risks discussed in these Terms.
- Force Majeure: We will have no responsibility or liability for any failure or delay in performance of the Portal or any of the Services, or any loss or damage that you may incur, due to any circumstance or event beyond our control, including without limitation each of the following: Government actions, the outbreak of war or hostilities, the threat of war, acts of terrorism, national emergency, riot, civil disturbance, sabotage, requisition, or any other international calamity, economic or political crisis; Act of God, earthquake, tsunami, hurricane, typhoon, accident, storm, flood, fire, epidemic or other natural disaster; Labour disputes and lock-out; Breakdown, failure or malfunction of any electronic, network and communication lines (not due to our fault); Any event, act or circumstances not reasonably within our control and the effect of that event(s) is such that Gravity is not in a position to take any reasonable action to cure the

12. MISCELLANEOUS

- No Waiver: Our failure or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege under these Terms will not operate as a waiver thereof.
- Severability: The invalidity or unenforceability of any of these Terms will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other of these Terms, all of which will remain in full force and effect
- Assignment: You may not assign or transfer any right to use the Portal or the Services, or any of your rights or obligations under these Terms, without our express prior written consent, including by operation of law or in connection with any change of control. We may assign or transfer any or all of our rights or obligations under these Terms, in whole or in part, without notice or obtaining your consent or approval.

- Entire Agreement: These Terms contain the entire agreement and supersede all prior and contemporaneous understandings between the parties regarding the Portal and the Services. If there is a conflict between these Terms and any other agreement you may have with us, these Terms will control unless the other agreement specifically identifies these Terms and declares that the other agreement supersedes these Terms.
